Looking Back on 2021

These are only some of the pictures from our distributions throughout 2021. Many thanks to all of the incredible folks who did so much to make difficult times easier for so many. We appreciate each and everyone for your help and especially for your kind hearts.

We wish we had the ability to show you pictures of everyone that comprises the heart of Sowing Seeds For Life but that would take dozens and dozens of pages, so to all of the wonderful individuals, teams, companies, schools and groups pictured and not pictured. We thank you and appreciate you so much and look forward to teaming up throughout the new year.
